It's the last chapter for libraries as they become victim of cuts

FURIOUS campaigners gathered to protest against the closure of Wigmore Library and Sundon Park library, which shut their doors for the last time on Friday.

Dozens of people spent the morning outside the library on Wigmore Lane with banners and placards in a last-ditch attempt to reverse the decision.

Wigmore Library, Sundon Park and the mobile library service have all been closed as part of Luton Borough Council attempts to make savings.

But Doreen Steinberg, who is the main campaigner for Wigmore Library has vowed to fight on.

Doreen, who collected a 10,000-signature petition said: "The plans to close these libraries discriminate against the elderly and infirm, and those who cannot afford an internet connection at home."

"Also discriminated against are young mothers – there is no visible alternative for the mothers and tots groups which are so important for social interaction."

MPs concern over claims of 'membership packing'

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

MPs and senior party officials have raised concerns over allegations of 'membership packing' by Labour in council wards in Luton.

Gavin Shuker, Labour MP for Luton South, said he has been 'challenging the practice' since his election in 2010.

The practice involves people being signed up as party members – sometimes without their knowledge – by individuals wanting to influence the selection of Labour candidates.

An internal Labour party document, seen by Luton on Sunday, which has been circulated among local Labour party members, states that there were 'potential irregularities' with the membership of the Luton South Labour party.

The report shows that in some wards membership had risen by as much as 400 per cent between December 2009 and December 2012.

Four wards are listed as having 'highly unusual' activity, which involves members being signed up in large numbers before key votes and then not renewing their memberships afterwards.

Speaking on a BBC radio show on Friday morning, Mr Shuker said: "There's been one ward in the town where membership has gone up by 500 people, that's bigger than most constituency parties on their own".

He was joined by Luton North MP Kelvin Hopkins who said the party needed to change its internal rules and policies as being a member was a 'privilege and a responsibility'.

He said: "If somebody had to be a member for four years before they were allowed to participate either as a candidate or as a voter in selecting candidates, I think that would be a step forward."

The allegations follow the resignation last week of senior Labour councillor Robin Harris who left Luton council. He accused some councillors of using 'underhand tactics, such as bullying and membership packing', although his colleagues have denied the claims.

In a statement Mr Shuker said: "I have consistently challenged the practice of membership packing since I was elected as Luton's MP."

"It is important for the public to be able to trust the political process, and individuals who sign up members in order to control the outcomes of selections, fail to learn the lessons of the past."

"Myself and Kelvin Hopkins stand squarely behind efforts to clean up our local party."

John Whittaker, chairman of the Luton South Labour party, claimed the democratic process in some wards had become 'non-existent'.

He said: "In places the membership of the party has been consistently and systematically packed by a small group of individuals, to their own ends. It is clear to me, and my officers, that in some wards the democratic process is non-existent."

"We've taken every opportunity to try and tackle this abuse, with limited success. As chair I have made it clear that this behaviour is unacceptable, and in some cases could even be illegal."

An East of England Labour Party spokesman said: "The Labour Party is determined to ensure that every Labour candidate is selected in an open, transparent and fair way. We are satisfied that all our selections are being carried out properly and any suggestions otherwise are wrong."

Court rejects sentence appeal from murderer

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A GANG member who was caged for at least 24 years for the 'dis-respect' murder of a teenage rival has failed to convince top judges his sentence is too long.

Lord Justice Laws said the killing of 19-year-old Delaney Brown by Kyle Beckford, 23, was hugely aggravated by the fact it was a gangland murder.

Mr Brown, who was associated with the town's Lewsey Farm gang, died when Beckford ran into the back of his bicycle, sending him careering into a brick post. Beckford admitted manslaughter, but was convicted by a jury of murder and jailed for a minimum of 24 years at Luton Crown Court last May.

He appealed on Friday but saw his case kicked out of the Court of Appeal by two Lord Justice Laws, Mrs Justice Thirlwall and Judge Paul Batty QC.

APPEAL REJECTED: Kyle Beckford

The court heard Beckford, of Waleys Close, Luton, a leading member of the Marsh Farm gang, was angry at perceived lack of respect shown by the other gang at a family funeral.

On September 5, 2012, while driving a stolen BMW around the town, he came upon Mr Brown and began to chase him.

In Vincent Road, he mounted the pavement and drove into the back wheel of the bicycle, sending the rider sailing through the air. He then left him to die.

During his appeal, his lawyers argued that the 24-year term, which he must serve in its entirety before even being eligible to apply for release, was "manifestly excessive".

Rejecting the argument, Mrs Justice Thirlwall said: "It was a terrible offence. A young man, terrified, was deliberately hunted down in broad daylight on the streets of Luton before the horrified gaze of members of the public.

"This was a gang killing. In his final moments, he would have known he stood no chance against this motor car being driven at him. Once the car drove into this bicycle, his death was certain."

Beckford, who watched his appeal from prison via a video link, can only go free after serving his minimum term if he is considered safe by the Parole Board.

FARLEY BY-ELECTION ANNOUNCED

A BY-ELECTION has been announced by Luton council following the resignation of Farley councillor Robin Harris. Mr Harris, who was responsible for the authority's finances, left his post last week.

The election will be held on March 13 and the elected councillor will serve until May 2015.

Anyone wishing to stand should contact the council's electoral services manager on 01582 546088 for a nomination pack, to be completed and returned by noon on February 14.

TEEN THREATENED WITH BLADE

A 14-YEAR-OLD boy in Luton has been robbed of his iPhone at knife-point.

The teen was walking along Fairford Avenue at 12.30pm on January 28 when two men started to follow him.

A few moments later one suspect approached the youngster, pulled a knife from his trousers and demanded that he handed over his phone and passcode.

Fearing for his safety, the 14-year-old did as he was told and the robbers fled the area. Anyone with information should call Detective Constable Dave Brecknock on 101.

'Libraries are vital to communities, they bring people together'

Mum Claire Lee said: "Sundon Park library is the only building of culture in the area, and that should be protected and not lost."

"I think that libraries are absolutely vital to our communities as they bring people together."

"That's why we are all so sickened by what has happened here."

Campaigners also want to see Luton Culture, who run the libraries on behalf of the council, to make public its accounts.

Narinder Bhauray, Director of Libraries and Community Centres at Luton Culture, said: "We very much regret that the £1.58m cut our charity is facing has forced us to make changes to the library service.

"We have incredibly loyal customers who deeply value their libraries and the library staff who take pride in serving them. We understand why people are upset which is why we would like to reassure residents that we will work as hard as we can to increase access to library services."

"In Luton 86.6 per cent of people will still live within a mile of a library after these closures - compared to 88 per cent at the moment, and 41 per cent of the active users at the libraries affected by these plans already use other libraries."

A further protest is due to be held outside Luton Central Library on Thursday at 12pm.

Schoolgirl Jessica sees her charity 'acorn' grow

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A GENEROUS eight-year-old has donated more than £1,000 to her Barton school after setting up her own charity.

Schoolgirl Jessica Frost started 'Jessica's Acorn' last year to help raise awareness about disabilities and autism, after her brother was diagnosed with the condition.

Twelve months on, the youngster has donated half of the money collected to Ramsey Manor Lower School's, Gold Class, which provides support for children with autism.

The donated £1,133.60, which was handed over to headteacher Mrs Freaks and Mrs Dwyer in an assembly this week, will be spent on special desks for the students.

The money has been raised with events including coffee mornings and jumble sales, while Ramsey Manor allowed penny pots to be put in their classrooms so spare change could be donated by pupils.

The remaining £1,000 the charity has received will be saved to help fund Jessica's ultimate dream – to open a centre for children with special needs.

DONATION: Jessica Frost presents a cheque to Mrs Dwyer and headteacher Mrs Freaks at Ramsey Manor Lower School

Jessica's grandmother, Linda Notschild, said: "She is a very determined and generous girl. "We are very proud of what she has achieved and want to say thank you to everyone in Barton village who has helped this year. Everyone has been very supportive."

"Jessica was aware that lots of people give money to charity already, but thought that if people were willing to donate their spare change it would eventually grow into a large amount – like an acorn into an oak tree.

"We know that is a big dream, but if we keep collecting our pennies, one day we will be able to afford our oak tree."

"We hope that this year will be equally successful and that we can donate a similar amount to another local good cause next year as well as collecting more for the centre."

For more information or to find out how you can help Jessica's Acorn, visit www.jessicasacorn.org.

Pop star Harry visits 'special' Keech

PATIENTS at Keech Hospice Care were delighted when McFly drummer Harry Judd arrived for a surprise visit last weekend.

The pop star had heard all about the Luton-based facility from two-year-old Oliver Marchant, son of old friends Tiggy and Matthew Marchant.

Harry made the visit with his wife Izzy Johnston, and the pair spent lots of time talking to families and children.

Following the visit, the musician said: "Keech is a really special place and I'm so glad we got to see a little bit of the vital work they do."

People smuggler 'ringleader' jailed

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MAN from Luton, who has been described as the 'ringleader' of a people smuggling gang, has been jailed.

Sudharsan Jeyakodi, 37, of Bradley Road, was sentenced to five years and four months in prison, for his role in a criminal gang that smuggled Sri Lankans into the UK from France.

The group, who were made up of four Sri Lankans and one British national, helped Sri Lankan illegal immigrants attempting to reach the UK by smuggling them in vehicles through the channel ports in France.

The court heard how the five men charged their Sri Lankan 'clients' around £4,500 each for the service. Many of the smuggling attempts were foiled by officers who discovered stowaways hiding in vehicles stopped at ports including Calais, Dunkerque, Coquelles and Dover.

JAILED: Sudharsan Jeyakodi

Of those who reached the UK, some would also travel onwards from the UK to North America using falsified documents.

The gang were caught after an investigation supported by Kent Police, the National Crime Agency (NCA), Europol and French, German and Swiss law enforcement agencies.

On Wednesday at Maidstone crown court, Jeyakodi was sentenced.

His accomplices

Kamalanesan Kandiah, 39, Chubramanian Vignarajah, 42, British national Amarjit Mudhar, 46, and John Anes Soundaranayagam Uvais, 41, were jailed for five years, three years and four months, four years and eight months and five years respectively.

David Fairclough from the Home Office, said: "This international organised crime gang conspired to smuggle desperate people into the UK purely for their own financial gain.

"They were major players in bringing Sri Lankan nationals to the UK illegally but thanks to the co-operation of agencies across Europe they have been stopped.

"People smuggling is a serious crime, which preys on vulnerable people.

"This investigation demonstrates that we will stop at nothing to track down those responsible."

Anyone with information about suspected immigration abuse can contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111 anonymously or visit the Crimestoppers website.

Good Samaritan is knifed

A GOOD Samaritan has been left with severe facial injuries following an 'appalling attack' in broad daylight in Dunstable.

The 35-year-old victim was in the residential parking area in Southwood Road on Thursday (January 23) at around 1pm, when he witnessed a woman being assaulted by another man.

He intervened and a struggle took place. During this, the man used a knife to slash the victim several times across the face and head before biting him twice on the nose.

The attacker, who is described as a white man of Mediterranean or Arab appearance and was wearing a dark baseball cap, green jacket and blue jeans, then got in a car and drove away.

Investigating officer Det Con Khajavidze said: "This was an appalling attack which was carried out in broad daylight, and I hope that somebody is able to come forward to help us."

'Someone will be hurt on this road'

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

AN angry motorist is calling on more to be done to enforce a one-way road system in Dunstable – after his car was hit four times in one year by drivers going the wrong way.

The driver, who we have agreed not to name, says the problem with Tavistock Street has become so bad that his insurers are now refusing to cover his vehicle.

The Dunstable resident has to drive down the one-way road to get to his nearby home.

But other motorists are defying the system, causing a number of crashes on the road's blind bend – leaving the law-abiding drivers out of pocket.

He said: "Something needs to be done in Tavistock Street, because the 'no entry' signs are clearly not enough.

"I can no longer afford to pay for the damage to my car, and my insurance company are refusing to cover me anymore as there have been so many incidents – and I'm not the only one this has happened to.

"It doesn't matter how

NO-GO: Signage clearly shows the road is one way, but one driver has been hit four times by motorists going the wrong way (inset) slowly you drive around the road, if a car is coming round that corner in the opposite direction, you have no chance.

"I have complained to Central Bedfordshire Council and asked if they could put a camera up in the road to catch the drivers, but they said they can't deal with enforcement.

"I feel like I'm being ignored and that no-one will take me seriously until someone gets hurt. I travel with my young daughter in my car, so I can't sit back and wait for that to happen."

We contacted Central Bedfordshire Council on Wednesday to ask if they were aware of this issue and what could be done, but they were unable to respond by our deadline of Friday evening.

- Have you seen drivers going the wrong way up Tavistock Street in Dunstable? Let us know.

IMPRESSED: Alex with students from Luton Sixth Form

Time Team's Alex meets students

STUDENTS at Luton Sixth Form College delved into the past with the help of an archaeologist and TV star, Alex Langlands.

The Time Team presenter gave a talk to A Level archaeology students about his career and then conducted a question-and-answer session.

Mr Langlands said: "They were a brilliant group and it was good chatting to them. The students asked question after question - and they were good, incisive questions."

Note is found after death of man at lake

BY JAMES AVERILL
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A LUTON man who was found dead in Willen Lake in Milton Keynes had left a note in his hotel room saying 'must test life jacket'.

An inquest that opened on Wednesday at Milton Keynes Coroner's Court heard that paramedics discovered the body of 55-year-old cleaner Steven Rosario.

Mr Rosario, of Poplar Avenue, Luton, had been staying at the Premier Inn on Brickhill Street, and was due to book out on January 20.

The hotel called police concerned that he was missing, and when officers entered his room they found a host of personal items including an empty life jacket container, and with it discovered a note saying 'must test life jacket'.

The court heard how Mr Rosario was hoping sell his property and get a dingy for his retirement, and that he had stayed in a number of hotels near lakes in the area.

CCTV images had shown him leaving the Premier Inn at 5.50pm on January 20, and a police helicopter identified a body in a yellow life jacket in the lake the next day.

Mr Rosario was confirmed dead at 3.01pm on January 21, and was taken to Milton Keynes Hospital where he was identified by a cousin.

Coroner Tom Osborne heard that police were satisfied no-one else was involved in Mr Rosario's death and that a post-mortem had been held.

Mr Osborne set a date of May 20 for the full inquest.

Fears revealed over the total Busway cost

SIR – It seems Luton Labour Party members are in need of a primary school course in basic arithmetic.

A leaflet they are currently circulating says the contribution of Luton residents towards the cost of the Luton-Dunstable busway is 37 pence per head.

Even if they mean 37p for every single adult and child the simple multiplication of 37p by 200,000 people comes to £74,000 whilst the latest update to the Council's Scrutiny Board says the shortfall to be found by Luton and Central Beds Council tax payers is £6m.

Worse still, the £6m shortfall does not include any over spend on the £89.2m budget?

The busway is now complete but the haggling with the contractor over the cost is not and could go on for some time yet so they still don't know how much it has cost.

They also conveniently forget to remind us of their assurances that

CONFUSION: It has been claimed the council don't know how much the busway cost there would be no day to day running costs of the system because the bus companies were going to pay to use it.

The truth is that, as most sane people predicted at the time, the bus companies have refused to pay.

The result is a "provision" of £400,000 a year in the budget estimates of the two councils for maintenance and cleaning.

The latest update to the council's Scrutiny Board says this may not be enough.

With the council set to agree a budget for the 2014-15 financial year in February we should all be relieved that the budget is put together by council finance officers who do understand the arithmetic even if they do so under political guidance from Labour councillors who clearly do not.

Cllr. David Franks, Liberal Democrat leader of the Opposition.

Labour Party spokesperson Francis Steer replies: "It seems that Lib Dem Cllr Franks is in need of some memory training.

Under Labour, the cost of constructing the busway has consistently been funded by using money contributed by others – like the Tory Lib Dem government.

The only cash taken from Luton's own coffers for the busway was the £60K spent by Cllr Franks when he together with the Tories ran the council.

This divided among the then, smaller (according to Office of National Statistics) population was about 37p per person.

Actual maintenance costs, currently predicted as £50K for this year, are expected to be well below that estimate. This attack on investment in our town from Cllr Franks is very predictable, he objects to anything that benefits Luton – be it new roads, Olympic swimming pools, employment, or housing.

We have little hope that he will improve."

Ron fights back

SIR – It looks like Luton Labour Party is a tad rattled. Last week my frequent letters to local newspapers provoked responses from no less than SIX readers. Yes, SIX in one week.

Of course, I was very flattered by this attention but I couldn't help wondering if there had been some sort of collusion. I was suspicious because most responses I receive are supportive but all of these were quite the reverse. In fact they were even a bit rude. Also they had all appeared in the same week.

So I did some research. What do you know?

ALL SIX correspondents turned out to be local Labour party activists.

Well now, what a coincidence. Of course, I was even more flattered now.

Could it be that my letters are causing major irritation to certain people at the big house in LU1 or even in Union Street? Are they so worried at the constant attention I give to the embarrassing antics of their councillors and their very own Labour-sponsored police commissioner that they feel it necessary to mount a concerted attack on me?

Oh yes, they were all personal attacks – not one attempted to take issue with anything I'd said. But I guess that's politicians for you.

Don't they appreciate my highlighting their trite, misleading and often downright untrue statements? Or their incompetence, cronyism or total inability to exercise any joined-up thinking?

Shame on them. I'm only trying to help. Please keep your letters coming folks, but in future might I suggest that you have the honesty (or should I say 'courage') to add after your names 'Member of Luton Labour Party'?

Ron Turvey,
Stanmore Crescent, Luton

Name of tax is wrong

SIR – Councillors in Luton are wrong to describe EU suggestion for a financial transaction tax as a 'Robin Hood' proposal.

The truth is such a tax is much more of a 'Sheriff of Nottingham' policy. History tells us that when financial transactions are taxed the financiers themselves move to other parts of the globe.

Those who pay the tax are those who can't move; pensioners who face lower pension income, real businesses who see additional costs, each of us when our insurance premiums rise, and public authorities.

The EU's own assessment said this tax would reduce GDP by over one percent. By contrast the current UK government's bank levy is bringing over £2billion each year into our public purse and is used to fund crucial public services.

The last Labour government layered tax upon tax onto the least well off in our society. Let's not allow them to do so again.

Vicky Ford,
Conservative Party

Preserve woodland

SIR – Owen Paterson, the national Environment Secretary, seems increasingly to regard his ecological illiteracy as a badge of pride. The latest example is his suggestion that destruction of ancient woodland could be 'offset' by planting new trees in its stead.

But ancient woodland, by definition, has been in existence since at least 1600. New planting could not possibly replicate the rich diversity of life which has grown up over centuries in our treasured local ancient woodlands of for instance King's and Baker's wood. Near an urban area such as Luton, it is especially important to preserve any remaining ancient wood, for obvious reasons.

The percentage of land in this country and in this county that is ancient woodland is so low that we can't afford to lose any.

In Bedfordshire it is around just one per cent. Our Government's obsession with growth at any cost cannot be permitted to destroy nature's final surviving Bedfordshire 'crown jewels'.

It is the Greens that have now taken up the mantle of preserving our countryside. If I am elected as your Green MEP this year, I will be doing everything I can to make sure that the powers of the EU are a force for good in nature conservation. That means preserving our remaining ancient woodlands.

Dr. Rupert Read
Lead Green Party MEP candidate in the East of England for the European elections

Support the RAF fund

SIR – As we all struggle to maintain our new year's resolutions to get fit, I thought I'd share news of an event organised for the RAF Benevolent Fund.

The 'maRAFon' will see elderly, injured and disabled RAF veterans and their families, friends and supporters, including myself, running, walking or rolling their own distance, to be collected into a single grand total over the Easter weekend.

It's a great way for young and old, disabled and able-bodied, fit and unfit to come together and have fun while raising money to support those who give, or have given, service to this country.

The world could end if taxes rise for the rich

TOP businessmen, and I mean men, up and down the land are screaming in agony. The world is about to collapse, investment crash and fire and brimstone rain on our heads.

Is the sun – the one up in the sky – about to fall? Are bankers going to be held to account for their incompetence?

Has the combined membership of the House of Commons admitted it is not fit to govern and resigned en-masse?

No, none of those, thank Heaven. It's worse. Labour has said that it will temporarily put income tax back to 50p in the pound on all earnings above £150,000 per year.

How ridiculous even to consider Labour will be re-elected, you might say.

But even The Sun – the one of Sky, not in it – says it is a cynical piece of electioneering to pose on the side of fairness, and show the Tories are concerned only with the interests of the rich.

A political party electioneering, how dare they! Next thing you know they will be offering reduced university fees and a referendum on leaving Europe.

And the Prime Minister will be saying we are all in it together.

When it comes to looking after number one, and a pox on the rest of you, many business leaders are at the cutting edge. But if they were to give themselves a break from their abject selfishness for just a moment, they might consider that, even from a point of view of enlightened self-interest, creating greater and greater inequality is not good for the prosperity of us all.

The World Economic Forum, meeting in Davos, has just announced that it believes the increasing gap between rich and poor is the biggest threat to prosperity in the next decade.

You could argue it was that, at least in part, which brought about the slump from which we are just recovering.

And historically it was the Conservative and capitalist who recognised that the best way to increase wealth and stave off civil unrest and instability, was to share the spoils.

The likes of Chamberlain, Cadbury and Rowntree did not just take, or run off with their millions in bonuses (providing they could actually get the cash out of the bank).

I don't want a Government that is anti-business, even from my own self-interest, but I would quite like one that is pro the people. All the people, not just the ones who earn more than £150,000 per year.

Tougher action on van parking issue

BY CARL MUNGAZI
@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON council have said they have introduced tougher parking enforcement following complaints by business owners.

Firms in Kimpton Road said vans and trucks with foreign number plates have been parking along the road for up to two to three days at time.

They claim drivers have been living in the vehicles and cooking on the road side, as well as using it as a toilet.

Kimpton Road has bays which allow two hours of free parking on one side and double yellow lines on the other.

One business owner, who did not wish to be named, said the vehicles were pre-

Business owners said customers found it hard to find parking places venting customers from finding parking spots.

He said: "We call the traffic wardens but the people have got wise to it so they just go away for a little while. They cook up there and they even go to the toilet there. There's nothing that can be done about it because they can park up there for two hours."

A council spokesman said it had arranged 'further parking enforcement visits' to Kimpton Road but could not take action against drivers who moved their vehicles when traffic wardens visited.

Figures show increase in people taking exercise

A SURVEY by Sport England has revealed that the number of adults taking part in regular sport or physical activity in the town is at its highest level since 2006.

The percentage of residents aged 16 and over participating in at least 30 minutes of sport, or active recreation three or more times a week, has increased from 15 to 21 per cent in the last year.

Further analysis of the data also showed that more males than females participating were regularly taking part in sport and physical activity.

Councillor Hazel Simmons, leader of Luton council, said the findings demonstrated a 'remarkable turnaround in people taking part in regular exercise'.

Luton Hoo history under the hammer

GOING, going, gone!

This week a one-off auction at Cheffins in Cambridge gave bidders the chance to take home a real slice of Luton Hoo's history.

Titled 'The End of an Era', the special sale included items from the interior of the grand house, including marble columns, and card tables.

Many of the lots date back to 1903, when royal advisor Sir Julius Charles Wernher purchased the house. He commissioned Parisian decorator Georges Unique items that were once at home inside Luton Hoo were sold at a special auction this week. LAUREN ARCHELL finds out more about the historic lots...

Hoentschel to lavishly redesign the interiors of Luton Hoo, who in turn appointed Mewes and Davies, the architects of the Ritz Hotel in London. After Sir Julius's death in 1912, his son Harold Wernher inherited the estate and went on to marry the last Tsar of Russia, known later as Lady Zia Wernher. The marriage heralded a further contribution of wealth, glamour and social events.

Thursday's auction of luxurious items was a huge success, with international interest from many phone bidders. A pair of 19th century Chinese fish bowls sold for £36,000, a George II mahogany centre table, made £40,000 and a pair of large wrought iron and gilded gates made £22,000.

Edward Phillips, Estate Director at Luton Hoo was very pleased with the sale, saying: "It was wonderful to see these pieces appreciated and desired by others."

Work to start on £46m Uni library

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

ONE of the largest construction companies in the UK, Willmott Dixon, has been awarded a design and build contract to construct the University of Bedfordshire's new library building in Luton.

Spread over seven floors, the iconic £46m building will become a landmark in the town centre incorporating 7,400 sq metres of space, connecting to the rest of the University's Luton campus via a bridge link.

The University's Vice Chancellor, Bill Rammell, said: "The appointment of Willmott Dixon to build our new library is great news.

"The fantastic new facility

DEVELOPMENT: The new library will further enhance the students' learning experience, offering the latest digital learning technologies, an expanded space for print resources and flexible study space."

Chris Tredget, Managing Director at Willmott Dixon, added: "We are delighted to be involved and look forward to delivering this superb new library for the University of Bedfordshire.

"As a local company, with an office in nearby Hitchin, Herts, and staff living across Bedfordshire, we are naturally very proud to be responsible for an important addition to our community."

The latest development forms part of the university's plans to invest £90million at the Luton campus over the next five years. Building works will commence this month, with completion expected in summer 2015.

Recognition for high standard at Vauxhall

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

VAUXHALL Luton, the UK's most productive van plant, is the first facility in Europe to achieve a top manufacturing benchmark.

The Built in Quality (BIQ) Level 4 honour has been awarded to the plant in recognition of its world class quality control standards.

Out of 396 General Motors facilities worldwide, Luton is one of only three vehicle manufacturing sites to be awarded this honour.

Auditors visited the plant last year to check its progress against a check list of 95 different items affecting the quality of the vans.

CELEBRATION: Staff at Vauxhall Luton after receiving the honour

Duncan Aldred, Vauxhall's Chairman and Managing Director said: "We are delighted Vauxhall Luton has been honoured for its excellent work on quality control and assurance.

"This award recognises the commitment that the Vauxhall Luton team put in to building the Vivaro van."

Vauxhall is the UK's number one manufacturer, building over 44,000 vans in the UK last year, all of which were produced at Luton.

Knife-wielding robbers steal a packet of cigarettes

A 28-YEAR-OLD man was robbed at knife-point as he made his way to work.

The man was walking through Manor Park in Luton at around 5.20am on Saturday, January 25, when he was approached by three men who asked if he had a cigarette.

When he said no, two of them grabbed him and pinned him to the floor while the other threatened him with a blade, before stealing a packet of cigarettes. The group then fled and the 28-year-old made his way home where he contacted the police.

The man who was armed with the knife is described as being white, 20 to 25-years-old, around 6ft tall, and wearing a black puffa jacket and black jeans.

Anyone with information should call Bedfordshire Police on 101.

INSPIRATIONAL: Headteacher Catherine Cassidy

Tributes paid to committed head

ST MARGARET of Scotland Primary School is mourning the passing of its popular headteacher Catherine Cassidy after a two year illness.

Although she led the Luton school for just three years, she made a lasting impression on the children in her care. Chair of Governors Loretta Danaher said: "Catherine was an inspirational leader. 'Her legacy will be that we continue to take the school to where she wanted it to be.'"

Plans for talks over proposed closures

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE potential closure of three Dunstable middle schools is set to be discussed at a meeting this week.

Central Bedfordshire Council is considering holding a public consultation on plans for Ashton, Brewers Hill and Streetfield middle schools.

It will present a report during a meeting on Tuesday outlining its reasons for consulting on possible closures.

The council said pupil numbers at each of the schools have been falling significantly as a result of changes to the education system in Dunstable.

However, some local residents have criticised the proposals. Danielle Hoy, 24, head of the 'Save Our Middle Schools' campaign said the council needed to be more open about its plans.

She said: "I think they have been very sneaky and underhand. They could be a lot more open about the plans."

Councillor Mark Versallion, said: "There have been lots of changes taking place in Dunstable and Houghton Regis schools this last year and many have taken advantage of greater powers given to them by Government to change their school, in response to parental demand. "I understand the concern and uncertainty that these proposals may cause.

"I want to be as open as possible about this proposal and make sure that all those affected are informed."

Pupils are learning skills with LEGO!

PUPILS at Someries Junior School have been getting technical with LEGO pieces following their appearance at a robot contest last year.

The Year 6 pupils appeared at the regional LEGO league tournament, a contest designed to test their science and technical skills.

Every Thursday after school pupils tinker with robots and hone their craft.

And now last year's team are passing on their skills to their peers as they spread their love of LEGO.

Kathleen McKinley, a Year 6 teacher started the club six

This week CARL MUNGAZI spoke to pupils at Someries Junior School to find out more about the work being done at their growing LEGO Robotics club years ago with equipment donated by Ashcroft High School.

She said the club had swelled its ranks with five more pupils and plans were in place to have club members teach Year 5 pupils later in the year.

She said: "The club allows some of the children that are maybe not as good on the academic side to work on their engineering and technical skills. It's really helped some of the pupils and it's also about teaching them about teamwork."

Year Six pupils are now teaching their fellow pupils how to build the LEGO robots

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Tom a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Foster for Central Bedfordshire Council

Children and young people need foster carers in your community

We are looking for single people, couples or families who have the time and energy to invest in children and young people's futures. If you can provide a safe and caring home for children or young people who cannot live with their own families then fostering could be for you.

We have specific shortages of carers:

- for sibling groups
- for older children and teenagers
- who can look after a child or young person on a long term basis

In return you will receive an allowance for looking after the child, comprehensive training and support.

If you want to give something back to your local community and help make a difference to a child's life, call the Central Bedfordshire Council's Fostering Service:

VISIT: The duck caused a stir at the college this week

Duck drops in at town's college

A COLLEGE entertained an unusual guest this week after it was visited by a duck.

The creature – a domestic Muscovy duck – was found loitering on Tuesday along the main boulevard at the Luton Sixth Form College.

The duck's presence generated interest on social media as students passed their comments on Twitter.

Staff tried to catch the animal but were unsuccessful and it flew away.

Bogus taxi driver is hunted after attack

BY JULIA SUTTON

editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A WOMAN has been raped after being picked up outside a hospital by what she believed was a taxi.

The assault took place on January 14 when the driver took her to her home in Redbourne after picking her up from the Luton & Dunstable Hospital.

He went into her property in at around 8.30pm and assaulted her.

Hertfordshire Police said he was driving a shiny black four-door car.

The suspect is also said to be a white man aged in his early to mid-30s, 5ft 10ins and of slim build.

He had short hair and was wearing a black jacket which had a yellow Ferrari emblem on the shoulder.

Detective Constable Annette Sims said: "I would appeal to members of the public in the area of the hospital who saw a car and driver matching the description above to contact me with any information.

"I would also be keen to hear from anyone who saw a car similar to this at any petrol stations in the area to contact police.

"This is a highly unusual incident however, I would like to take this opportunity to remind members of the public that if they are using a taxi to ensure that it is licensed."

CARL MUNGAZI

carlmungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

LEALANDS High School has become one of the top 100 secondary schools in England for improved GCSE results over the last three years.

Headteacher John Burridge received a letter from the Minister of State for Schools, David Laws MP, congratulating staff, governors, and pupils on the school's improvement following publication of results league tables last week.

The letter said the school was 'one of the top 100 in England showing the greatest sustained improvement in the percentage of pupils achieving five or more A*-C grade GCSEs, including English and Maths'.

Mr Laws also wrote: "I would like to offer my thanks to you and all at your school for your pursuit of the highest standards of educational achievement." Mr Burridge said he was 'pleased' with the letter and that it had given the school 'lots to celebrate as we continue on our journey of excellence together'.

Six Nations TV warning for town's pubs and clubs

PUBS and clubs in the town have been sent a reminder about having the correct TV licences as the 2014 RBS Six Nations championship kicks off this weekend. Fines of up to £1,000 per offence plus costs and court action could be taken against any pubs, clubs or sporting venues which show live TV with no licence. TV Licensing said if a premises has living accommodation where a TV is also in use, it must be covered by a separate licence. A spokesman for the company said there were over 50 pubs within a two-mile radius of the town. He added: "It's important pubs and clubs are correctly licensed and we know landlords and managers want to stay within the law, which is why we are issuing this advice regarding the 2014 RBS 6 Nations tournament."

Help with changes to Housing Benefit

Working-age people living in social housing now receive Housing Benefit based on the number of people in their household and the size of their accommodation. Pensioners are not affected by this change.

This change helps families who live in overcrowded accommodation or on waiting lists to find a new home.
People who rent from private landlords already get Housing Benefit in this way, and this makes it fair for everyone.

If you are affected, you should have heard from your council.

There is support to help you manage these changes, including:

- thinking about downsizing or
'home swapping' to a different sized property
- finding a job or increasing your hours can make you better off
- applying to your council for a Discretionary Housing Payment.

Excitement grows as the evergreen phenomenon flies into MK Theatre

MUSICAL

WICKED: THE UNTOLD STORY OF THE WITCHES OF OZ

Milton Keynes Theatre
February 4-March 8

IT'S got its own Facebook account, a Twitter profile and millions of fans the world over. Now Wicked: The Untold Story of the Witches of Oz, is about to cast its magic spell over MK. JUDY RILEY chats with the two bewitching stars of the show about dreams come true, fancy dress... and skincare routines.

It's like something from a hit stage musical. 'Young hopeful sees West End show in its opening weeks and vows that one day she'll play the lead role.' Except this time it's for real. EMILY TIERNEY, playing Glinda, saw the show when it first opened, eight years ago. "I thought, 'that's my dream show and my dream part. I'm going to play that part one day'."

Lots of people have ambitions that are never realised but there must have been a little bit of magic – or maybe sorcery – in the air that day. Just a few years later, on leaving drama school, Emily was cast in the show as a member of the ensemble. Then she landed the part that she always dreamed of playing.

"I went through four auditions with one big, final audition that included being filmed so that the producers in the States could decide whether I was right for it," she says. "It's such an iconic role and I was really chuffed to be considered. I was walking through Leicester Square one day and my agent called. She said 'you need to sit down', I said 'I can't, I'm in the middle of Leicester Square!' Then she told me I'd got it and I nearly fell down!"

That's when the work really kicked in for Emily. If you're doing eight shows a week on a twelve month tour and, on top of that, it's a massive part, you've got to be prepared.

"I took singing lessons and built up stamina. Vocally and physically I need to pace myself and that's probably the most challenging thing – maintaining that stamina."

WONDERFUL WORLD OF OZ: Emily Tierney and Nikki Davis Jones take to the stage as Glinda and Elphaba

Emily is going to watch her step though. A couple of winters ago, while she was appearing in Andrew Lloyd Webber's Wizard of Oz, she slipped on the ice and broke her foot. "It was the worst time in my career," she says. "I was out of action for about 10 weeks with my foot in a cast."

And the best moment of her career so far? "Finding out I'm playing Glinda, my dream role, of course!"

Going green has taken on a whole new meaning for NIKKI DAVIS JONES.

As Elphaba, the Wicked Witch of the West, she has to 'green' up 'six days a week. But Nikki took her first steps on the yellow brick road to Oz when she was very young.

"I was always dancing from the age of about three. Then, when I saw Starlight Express, it came to me in a blinding flash that it was what I wanted to do."

After three years at Laine Theatre Arts School in London "I was pretty much out of work for a year" she recalls. "Eventually, I got into Blood Brothers in the West End. That was a turning point. I was understudying the part of Linda and then I played the part on tour."

"After that I got into Mamma Mia in the West End, understudying again – and then I got the part... there's clearly a pattern to my career; I'm obviously rubbish at auditions but then they see I'm actually ok!"

Nikki is very ok as Elphaba but even she has had to deal with the odd embarrassing moment on stage. "I'm quite forgetful and sometimes I do drop lines and speak total gobbledegook. It's awful."

So, Nikki, quick Q&A time:

If you're invited to a fancy dress party who do you go as?

"Well, absolutely not Elphaba! I confess that I do have a Princess Leia outfit. Not the gold bikini!! It's the white dress..."

What's it like having to wear green make-up every day? How long does it take to put on and to get off and does it take its toll on your skin?

"It takes 20 minutes for it to be put on and half an hour to get it off. It's put on my face, neck and hands and because it's water-based, it doesn't get into my pores. But I do get to have a facial once a week. There's quite often traces of it left on my body when I leave the theatre but I've been doing quite a lot of swimming lately and the chlorine in the water is a great way to get it off!"

Lots of people have seen the show in London, some of those will come along and see it again in Milton Keynes, will they notice much difference in the productions?

"Of course there are tiny changes, you can't have everything, but some, I think have been for the better. They are so clever with what they've done."

And for anyone who hasn't yet seen it?

"If you enjoyed the Wizard of Oz, you're going to absolutely love Wicked! The music is incredible, it's funny, it's all about friendship and the special effects are amazing!"

Sounds pretty wicked to me.

March 20, 7.30pm

GET ready for an evening of magic, laughter and foolery Shakespearian-style at the Grove Theatre next month.

Following their five star-rated, sell-out production of Measure for Measure, Off West End-nominated Immersion Theatre are embarking on their first UK tour with their own take on one of Shakespeare's most beloved comedies, A Midsummer Night's Dream.

Immersion Theatre is renowned for making the words of Shakespeare accessible to modern day audiences, and it tries to place audiences at the heart of every production.

Set in Great Britain just before the start of the Great War, this adaptation sees these fantastical characters transported to a time of unparalleled peace and prosperity.

Four young lovers, a band of hapless actors, and a magical realm populated by enchanting spirits set on causing mischief and mayhem at every turn, culminate in an evening of beauty and hilarity.

This adaptation of A Midsummer Night's Dream is directed by James Tobias, a rising star within the theatre circuit.

He has been praised for his five star-rated adaptations of Taming of the Shrew, Measure for Measure, and award-nominated Julius Caesar.

This is a chance to come and experience his new adaptation of one of Shakespeare's most hilarious comedies?

Normal tickets are £14 and £10 for students. Call 01582 602080 to book.

MUSIC

The Grove Theatre
April 12, 2014, 7.30pm

THE trio of Sammy Davis Jnr, Dean Martin and Frank Sinatra were the definition of cool during the Fifties and Sixties, and their Las Vegas showbar appearances were legendary.

At the time, the city was gripped with anticipation whenever the Rat Pack played at 'the entertainment capital of the world'.

Backed by the full sound of a big band, they had attitude to spare, and the rebel-rousing legend that is Sammy Davis Jnr, Dean Martin and Frank Sinatra remains unmatched to this day.

This unique chapter of musical history has been superbly recreated by the incredible Rat Pack Live tribute concert and the producers are offering two lucky readers the chance to win a pair of tickets each.

The show has played to capacity crowds throughout the UK and has a set list of an incredible 45 worldwide hits to choose from.

Featured hits by Dean include, 'Everybody Loves Somebody', 'Volare' and 'Memories are Made of This'.

Sammy's hits include 'Black Magic' and 'Me and My Shadow', whilst Frank's hits include 'Fly Me to the Moon', 'My Kind of Town' and 'My Way'.

Together the group will sing 'New York, New York', 'Luck Be A Lady' and 'The Lady is a Tramp'.

To win tickets, please answer this simple question: The 'Rat Pack Live' production features tributes to Dean Martin, Sammy Davis Jnr and which other famous Fifties and Sixties crooner?

Send your answer on a post-card or e-mail to carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk with your name, address, e-mail address and daytime phone number.

Closing date is February 9. There is no cash alternative and our usual rules apply. The editor's decision is final.

To buy tickets for the show call the Grove Theatre box office on 01582 602080.

Romany production features play with music and dance

THEATRE

The Hat Factory
March 13-14, 7.30pm

THE Romany Theatre Company and Ovalhouse in co-production with New Wolsey, Ipswich is presenting 'Our Big Land', a play written by a Romany traveller.

It was originally written in the Romani language with gypsy music and songs.

In the production, Oceania, a powerful Romany matriarch, is convinced that Sophie, a Gorgian house dweller, is destined to become the next keeper of the bauro diklo, the sacred storytelling shawl.

The bauro diklo is the lifeblood of Romany people, carrying the hard-earned lessons of the past and showing The Way into the future.

When Sophie falls in love with Oceania's handsome but brutal son Roman, Oceania is overjoyed. But a catastrophic event on Sophie and Roman's wedding day threatens not only to tear apart Oceania's plan, and family, but the whole future of the Romany people.

Our Big Land is a provocatively dark, atmospheric piece of theatre. The producers said it had a style of beauty mixed with gritty realism, while the songs and movement try to transport audiences to world rarely seen on stage before.

Tickets for this production cost £10, with concessions at £8 and you can make your purchases by calling the box office on 01582 878100.

Night of classical music

MUSIC

Luton Library Theatre
Tomorrow, 7.45pm

TWO players from one of the most exciting new orchestras, Aurora, will be playing tomorrow in the latest Music on Mondays concert.

Timothy Orpen (pictured), the group's principal clarinetist and principal pianist John Reid will be joining forces to create another night of memorable music.

The Aurora was created in 1995 and has since gone on to become one of the most significant new British chamber orchestras in a generation. Timothy is an accomplished performer and has shared the stage with the Allegri, Australian, Carducci, Chilingirian, Doric, Heath, and Sacconi String Quartets, and sopranos Elizabeth Watts, Lucy Crowe and Sally Matthews.

Other performances include recitals and chamber concerts with Pascal Rogé in Hong Kong and performances with Melvyn Tan and Anthony Marwood.

John's career to date has seen him become a versatile chamber musician, song accompanist, soloist and exponent of new music.

In February 2013 he curated a series for the Britten centenary at Kings Place in London, which also incorporated new works by Simon Holt, Jonathan Dove and Martin Suckling. Other recent projects have included concerts of Schumann and Brahms with The Sixteen in London, Manchester and Bruges; recitals at Wigmore Hall and around the UK to mark the centenary of Kathleen Ferrier's birth, with singers including mezzo-soprano Diana Moore; and a residency at the Banff Centre in Canada.

Tomorrow's event is the latest in Luton Music Club's current season of 20 concerts.

The club has been running since 1946 and has become one of the leading promoters of small scale concerts in the UK.

Tickets for this performance cost £15 and £8 for students, unemployed, and disabled people.

You can book by calling the box office on 01582 547474.

War story set to become a box office hit

THIS week our resident film expert Gavin Miller looks at the latest movies.

LONE SURVIVOR (15): Mark Wahlberg headlines this 'based on a true story' US box office smash as part of a Navy SEALs team on an ill-fated 2005 mission to neutralise a senior Taliban operative in deepest Afghanistan.

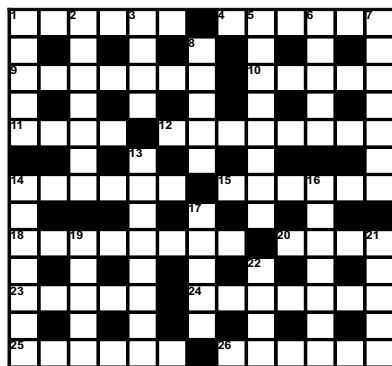

He is joined by some of Hollywood's hottest young stars, Taylor Kitsch, Emile Hirsch and Ben Foster – along with Hulk star Eric Bana – as the unit are ambushed and left to fight for their lives alone with absolutely no outside support.

As the title suggests it sadly doesn't end up well, in this movie from Friday Night Lights and The Kingdom director Peter Berg.

I, FRANKENSTEIN (12A): This is cut from the same cloth that made the Underworld series – with Aaron Eckhart as the lead.

He stars as Frankenstein's creature Adam – who finds himself caught in an ancient war between two immortal clans – in this supernatural action fantasy.

AUDI'S A GAME

Audi's second stab at fostering a supermini dynasty is called the A1 and the recipe is a far simpler one than that which resulted in the A2 some ten years previously. The hope within Audi is that the A1 can stand out from the pack with its prestige badge and premium cabin quality while holding its own with solid mechanicals borrowed from the Volkswagen Polo. It sounds like a plan that will have the rest of the contenders at the fashionable end of the supermini sector worried.

We've seen all of the engines before elsewhere in the Audi and VW group line-ups. The TSI petrol engines use turbocharging to compensate for their modest capacities, the 1.2 TSI achieving 86PS with 160Nm of torque and the entry-level 1.4 TSI chipping in with 122PS and 200Nm. There's also a 185PS version of this 1.4 that uses both supercharger and turbocharger allied with a clever 7-speed DSG semi-automatic gearbox. The diesel option is a 1.6-litre common-rail injection TDI unit with 105PS and 250Nm. Both of the entry-level petrol engines return very similar economy and emissions figures of about 55mpg and 119g/km. The diesel is substantially better with an excellent 70.6mpg and a CO2 output of 105g/km.

A conventional supermini shape is adopted by the A1, which isn't a great surprise given its mechanical similarity to the largely conventional VW Polo. It also means that the A1 gains an edge over rivals from the trendier end of the supermini sector with a 267-litre boot that expands to 920 litres with the rear seat backs folded. The exterior of the car is crawling with recognisable Audi design cues and although you couldn't call the looks adventurous, the A1 has got the combination of neat proportions and engaging detailing that Audi does so well. The one feature that obviously breaks from the Audi master plan is the roof arch which can be specified in a different colour to the rest of the bodywork.

Uni's professor helps to pick Sochi squad

WINTER OLYMPICS*BY DAN PALMER
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

THE University of Bedfordshire's sports science expert, Professor John Brewer, has had a hand in selecting Team GB's Winter Olympics squad for Sochi.

Professor Brewer, who alongside his role at the University is also the chairman of British Ski and Snowboard, was part of the panel that ratified the 19-strong team of skiers and snowboarders who will form part of the GB squad that travels to Russia next month.

"Picking the ski and snowboard squad was an incredibly tough job, especially as many of the athletes we considered met the Olympic Qualifying standard," said Professor Brewer, Director of Sport and Sports Enterprise at Bedfordshire.

"But the finalised squad we have selected excites me as it is one of the strongest ever."

"I firmly believe the ski and snowboard team can meet UK Sport's target of up to two medals, as there are some extremely talented youngsters, as well as experienced competitors, heading to Sochi."

And Professor Brewer, who was chairman of the British Handball Association for the London 2012 Olympics, is hoping for a strong showing from the GB bobsleigh team in Russia will aid the development of two local students, Antoe Walters and Ashley Watson, who were in the running to represent GB at Sochi but just missed out this time.

He added: "By allowing me to take on the role of chair of British Ski and Snowboard, the University of Bedfordshire has played a role in supporting the country in Sochi – something I am very proud of."

"And whilst they're not part of the bobsleigh squad in Russia next month, Antoe and Ashley will clearly benefit from a successful Olympics for the bobsleigh team, which could mean a duo of local students competing in the 2018 Winter Olympics in South Korea."

The Winter Olympics in Sochi are to get underway on Thursday February 6.

Luton book cup final place by beating local rivals

RUGBY UNION*BY TIM BARTLETT
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

LUTON took the weekend off from league action to travel north to beat Bedford Athletic 24-14 in the semi-final of the East Midlands Cup, and now look forward to going one better than last season, when they were beaten in the final by all-conquering Amptill at Bedford Blues' Goldington Road.

Whilst Ath play in National Three, the fifth tier of English rugby, one level above Luton, who play in London North, the sixth tier, this superiority was not evident on the pitch with both teams enjoying periods of dominance and territory in the first period.

"It was a game of two halves," said Luton's backs coach Nick Rhodes. "We were poor in the first half."

Trailing 11-5 at the interval, Luton's only points came from lock forward Karl Rodell midway through the half, rewarded for getting forward to support Steve Ellis, who'd picked up a wayward Ath kick and run back at the Bedford defence.

Ath extended their advantage to nine points early in the second period from a penalty kick, before three tries scored in a ten minute period midway through the half turned things around for the visitors.

First Mike Weston scored, converted by Chris Talanoa, to reduce the deficit to two points, before Talanoa himself added Luton's third try of the afternoon, to which he added the conversion, to give Luton a 19-14 advantage.

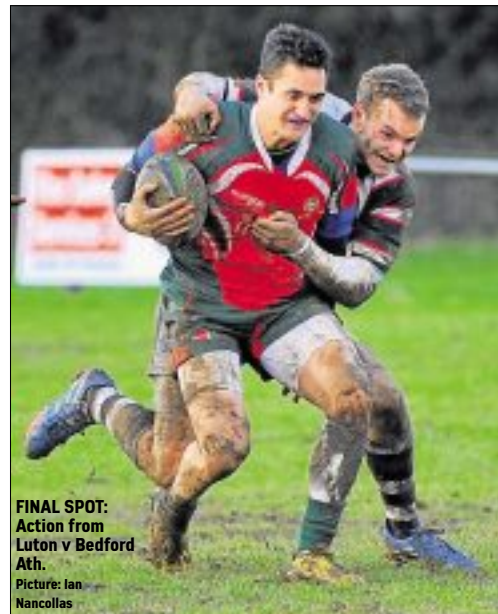

Within minutes, Weston had added his second try of the afternoon, and Luton lead their opponents 24-14, which was how it remained despite Ath's best efforts to get back into the game.

Bedford had voted Luton's Mike Weston as the man of the match on the day, a decision supported by Luton's Skipper Pat Nelly.

"Mike's very good going forward, he's got ridiculously strong leg drive, it makes life so much easier for the other forwards because it allows you to get on the front foot which is what the game's all about," said Nelly.

STOCKWOOD PARK were beaten at home 20-13, by Midlands 3 West (South), Pershore in the RFU Senior Vase this weekend.

Aaron Beattie and James Hankey both went over for Stockwood but it was not enough for a place in the quarter finals of the competition.

Opinion: Hatters boss is comparable to Del Boy

In his latest blog for Luton on Sunday, Hatters fan Gavin Daly hails manager John Still's prowess in the transfer market – and suggests that he is similar to a certain legendary character from Only Fools & Horses. You can read more of his work online at www.luton-dunstable.co.uk/sport.

BY GAVIN DALYsport@lsnmedia.co.uk

WHILE most fans would have been expecting the return of Pelly Ruddock Mpanzu to Kenilworth Road until the end of the season, for manager John Still to pull off a coup and sign him permanently on Tuesday once again shows the 'John Still Effect'.

Add Jernade Meade, a player who has Champions League experience, to the list of recent signings, albeit on loan, and you really start to wonder how the gaffer does it.

He really does seem like a modern day footballing Del Boy, and us Hatters are loving it.

I can't remember the last time we had a manager who commanded as much respect as John Still does, and not just from players but from opposition managers...minus a certain former manager maybe.

While most non-league clubs look at League One or (at a push) Championship players for loans, here is a man who mixes everything.

He's just as capable at picking a diamond from the rough like Andy Parry as he is scouting the reserves of Premier League teams for future stars such as the likes of Pelly, Cameron McGeehan and now Jernade Meade.

Luton Town FC as a club is a huge attraction for players, we all know that.

To be able to play in front of 7,000 fans means we are one of the bigger teams not just in non-league but outside of the Championship and the players who finally get us into the Football League after a five year absence (so far) know they will be hailed as heroes.

But is that enough to convince a player to drop down four divisions?

I remember when we signed Mark Cullen from Hull City in the summer and John Still in his interview expressed his delight in securing his services as he didn't think he would drop down to this level.

While Mark spoke highly of the club it was John Still's honesty that apparently outshone everything else and his talk of the project he was building at Luton.

It made him want to be a part of it.

With no disrespect to our previous managers, who all left us with something positive for Still to build on, we haven't had that in recent years.

Still has also brought that level of never say never and although we didn't sign anybody on January 31, for the first time in a few years I was excited about Deadline Day.

It has still been a good January for us and a big portion of that is down to the 'John Still Effect'.

Long may it continue.

DEL BOY?: John Still*LOAN: Solomon Taiwo

Taiwo is loaned to Shots

HATTERS midfielder Solomon Taiwo has joined the Luton Town players who are currently out on loan.

Boss John Still is keen to ensure match time for his men who are struggling for regular minutes at Kenilworth Road, with JJ O'Donnell, Shaun Whalley, Alex Wall and Jim Stevenson also being sent out for time in different pastures by their manager.

Taiwo has signed for Aldershot Town on a month's loan, until March 1.

The 28-year-old midfielder has made seven appearances for Luton this season and recently played in both FA Trophy matches against Cambridge United.

The Shots lie in 19th place in the Skrill Premier with 30 points, but begun the season on minus 10.

Meanwhile, fellow midfielder Stevenson has seen his loan at Skrill

Premier strugglers Dartford extended until the end of the season.

The 21-year-old, who joined the Hatters from Histon during the summer, has been a regular for the Darts since joining the club and scored his first goal for them against Welling United last month.

He will not be able to feature against Luton under the terms of his loan and is playing along side striker Wall at the club.

Meanwhile, midfield pair O'Donnell and Whalley are at Gateshead and AFC Telford United respectively.

Youngsters Jake Woolley and Charlie Smith have also been borrowed by other clubs a bit further down the footballing pyramid.

Woolley is at St Neots Town while Smith is currently turning out for Hitchin.

development team who is my old pal.

"They told me about the boy and they said he was very good, competitive, can play, can run, can tackle, so we enquired and Swansea bent over backwards to help.

"He 100 per cent wanted to come, he was delighted to come back here and delighted to play for Luton, and that's a plus."

But with the team unbeaten in 20 league games, and loan signings Cameron McGeehan and Ryan Inness already impressing, the boss has warned that the pair won't walk straight into the side.

"It [the additions] has made the squad stronger and the competition to get in is fierce," he said.

"They've got to work hard and wait for their chance and then take their chance."

• Both Ruddock Mpanzu and Meade will have to wait a little longer for their first taste of Hatters action since their signatures as yesterday's scheduled Skrill Premier contest at Dartford was postponed due to a waterlogged pitch.

A pitch inspection took place at 9.30am, but it was found the surface was in an unplayable condition following heavy rainfall.

A new date for the fixture will be scheduled in due course.

HATTERS

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

LUTON Town manager John Still has said 'thank you' to the club for their support in bringing new faces to Kenilworth Road.

This week the Hatters announced they had resigned West Ham youngster and former loanee Pelly Ruddock Mpanzu on a permanent deal and Jernade Meade from Swansea City on a season-long loan.

"You know, I think that the club has supported me fantastically and I have to say thank you," said the boss.

"It was Gary Sweet who did the negotiations, so I have to say thanks for negotiating to get the players.

"I really appreciate that and it shows that they have faith in what I want to do."

The manager went on to sing the praises of the latest additions to the Luton squad.

"Everyone knows Pelly and when he went back and picked up the injury we said we would speak about loans when he was fit," said Still.

"I can't remember who said it, but someone said 'any chance of buying him?'

"We had a chat and asked the question and we got a positive and followed it through.

"We didn't have a problem talking to West Ham and managed to negotiate that pretty quickly.

"We didn't know how it would go with Pelly himself, once West Ham had spoken to him about his future there, I could have understood if he wanted to try and find a team in a higher league and explore all the avenues.

"But he said 'I want to come to Luton' and once it was done it got done very quickly.

"Since we've signed him I've had calls from different places asking 'how did you sign him, what did you do?'

"If it was out there other clubs would have been coming on to him and there wouldn't have been anything we could have done about that.

"But as soon as West Ham said Luton, he said 'lovely' and the conversation between player and agent was five minutes long.

"Once we were all happy we just did it and it worked perfectly."

The manager added that Luton-born Meade was one that he had spotted during a development game a couple of years ago.

"It was a different one there, we were alerted about Jernade and I knew I recognised the name but I couldn't get my head around it," he said.

"I looked through some old programmes and development sheets and found that I had seen him play left back at Arsenal.

"I had ticked him off as being competitive and being able to pass.

"I rang Tony Roberts, Arsenal goalkeeping coach and my old goalkeeper, and Terry Burton of the
